Smart Short Haul

Do you know which short haul drivers are running out of hours or going over air-mile limits?

EROAD's Smart Short Haul takes the guess work and risk out of running short haul. Drivers don't need to manually switch operational rule sets because EROAD takes care of the switch automatically.

150 air-mile

14-hour

EROAD

Compliance made easy

- Make sure drivers know they are within short haul limits – whether hours or air-miles.
- Help drivers operate under the proper ruleset.
- Stop chasing paperwork.
- Streamline your process for time sheets and logs for all drivers and keep them in one place.

Handling short haul criteria:
Hours limit

< 13 hrs — Driver logs in and uses short haul, beginning their 14-hour countdown

Matthew Wilson — SH
10h31 — DRIVING TIME LEFT

13-14 hrs — At 13 hours, driver is made aware of proximity to hours limit

Matthew Wilson — SH
0h45 — DUTY TIME LEFT

14 hrs — Once the 14-hour duty limit is reached, the driver is alerted to the end of the short haul exemption and prompted to acknowledge the change to baseline intra- or interstate ruleset

Matthew Wilson — SH
⚠ END OF SHORT HAUL

End of Short Haul Exemption
🕐 You exceeded the drive limit
[GOT IT!]

> 14 hrs — Once out of short haul, driver is prompted to take a required break if not already taken

30-Min Rest Break Required
☕ Please take your 30-min break asap to avoid violation
[GOT IT!]

Handling short haul criteria:
Air-miles limit

< 140 miles — EROAD Ehubo determines start location. Driver sees short haul screen during shift within the 150 mile radius

Matthew Wilson — SH
10h31 — DRIVING TIME LEFT

140-150 miles — Between 140 and 150 miles, driver is alerted to proximity of exceeding 150 air-mile limit

Jane Smith — SH
⚠ 141 AIR MILE

Jane Smith — SH
10h50 — DRIVE TIME LEFT — ⚠141 AIR MILE

> 150 miles — Once the 150 air-mile limit is exceeded, the driver is alerted to the end of the short haul exemption and prompted to acknowledge the change to baseline intra- or interstate ruleset

Matthew Wilson — SH
⚠ END OF SHORT HAUL

End of Short Haul Exemption
🕐 You exceeded the 150 air-miles radius
[GOT IT!]